

Linden Trees in Buffalo, NY

Linden Trees

- Trees in a good Location
- Trees located near Pollution Sources

A tree is considered located near a pollution source if it is within 100 m of medium sized roads and light industry, 200 m of large roads and highways, and 500 m of railroads and heavy industry.

Sources:

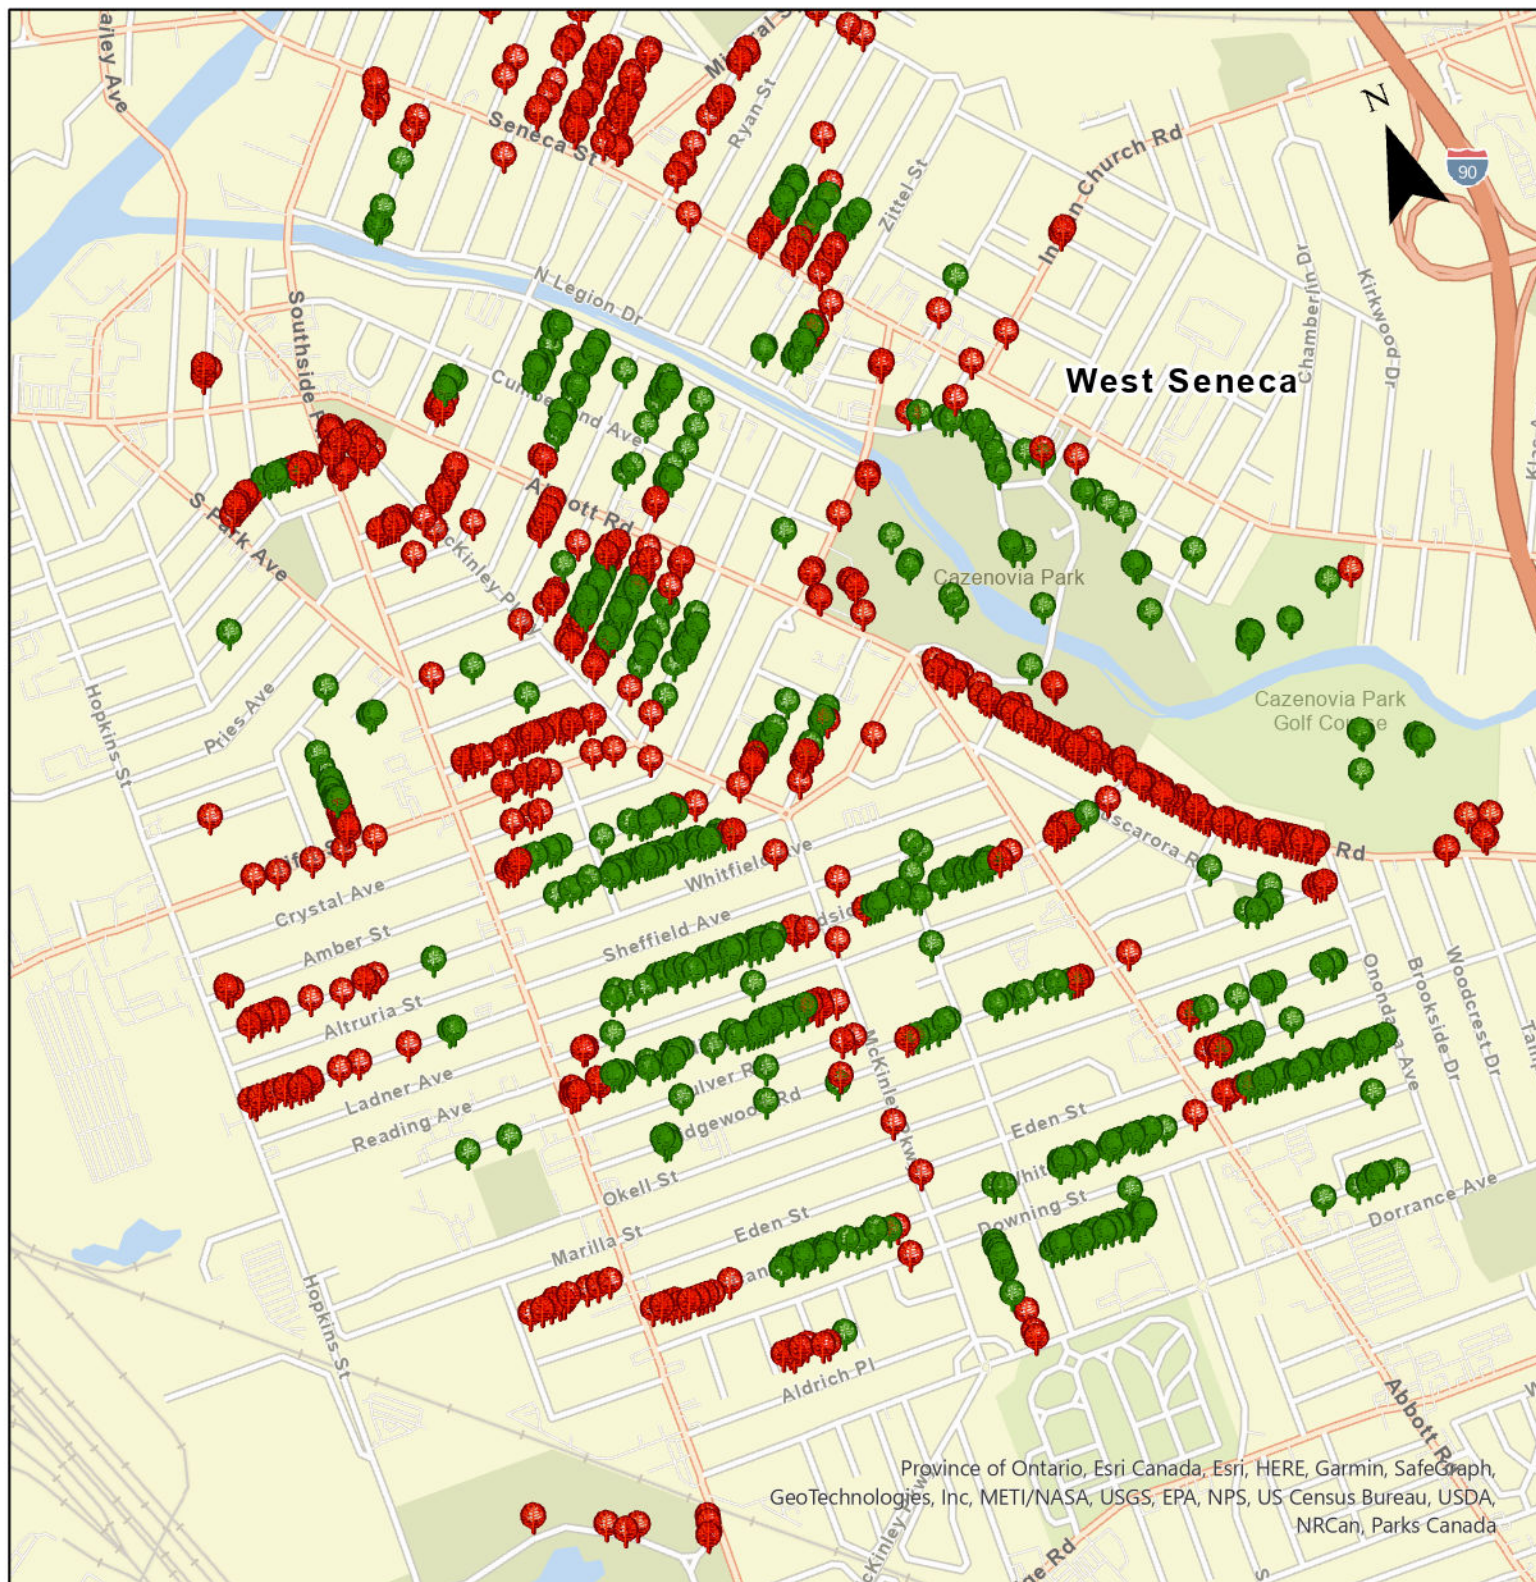

Department of Public Works, Parks & Streets. (2018). Tree Inventory [Data Set]. City of Buffalo. Retrieved July 27, 2022, from <https://data.buffalony.gov/Quality-of-Life/Tree-Inventory/n4ni-uuec>

New York State Office of Information Technology Services. (2021). Highways and Roadways [Data Set]. New York State. Retrieved August 10, 2022, from <https://data.buffalony.gov/Infrastructure/Highways-and-Roadways/dbwm-jgtt>

Office of Strategic Planning. (2021). Zoning [Data Set]. City of Buffalo. Retrieved August 10, 2022, from <https://data.buffalony.gov/Economic-Neighborhood-Development/Zoning/5843-jknb>

Map by Lucia Johnson

West Seneca/South Park Linden Trees

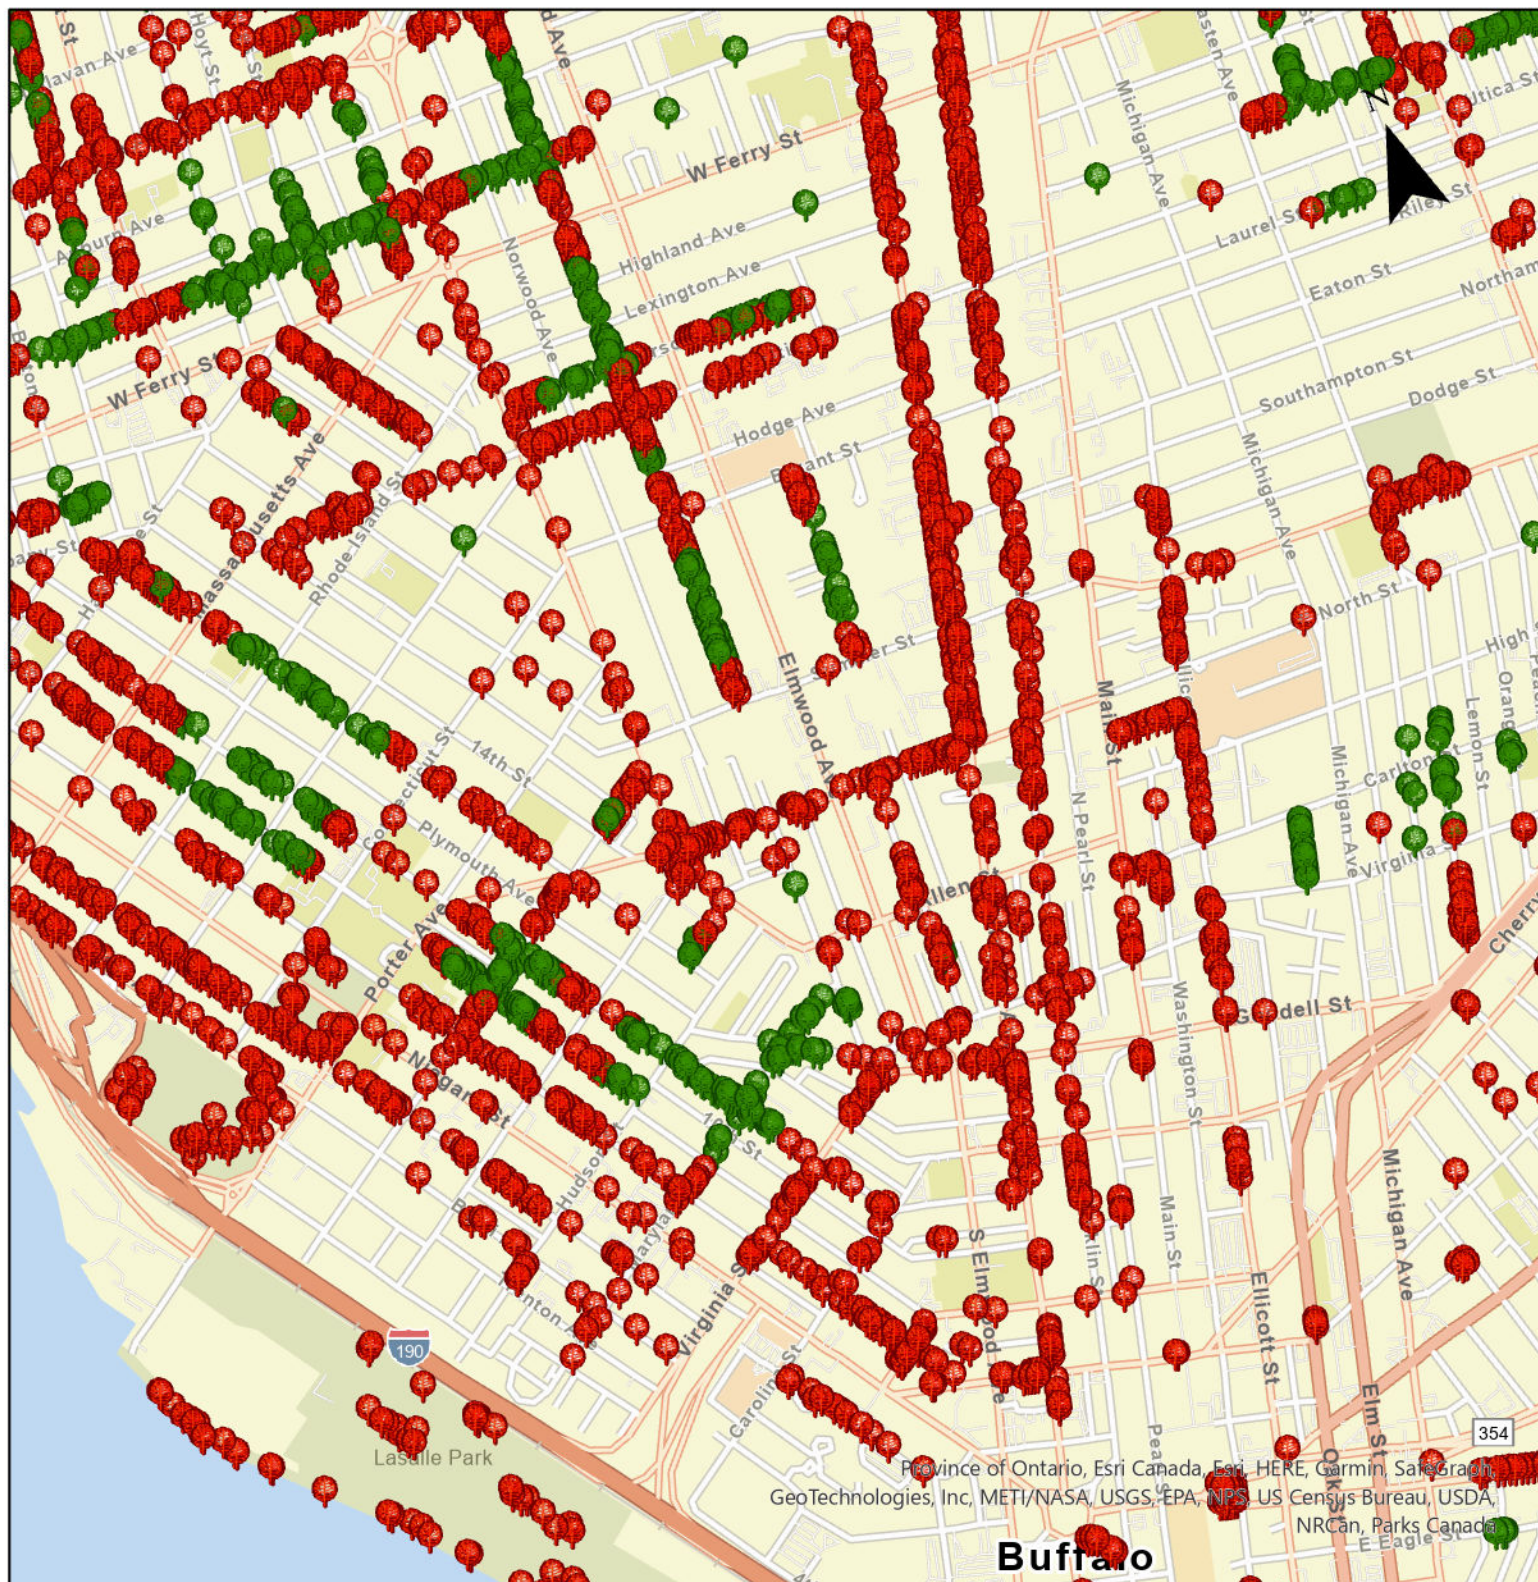

Linden Trees

-  Linden Trees in a good Location
-  Linden Trees located near Pollution Sources

A tree is considered located near a pollution source if it is within 100 m of medium sized roads and light industry, 200 m of large roads and highways, and 500 m of railroads and heavy industry.

Lower West Side/Allentown/Fruit Belt Linden Trees

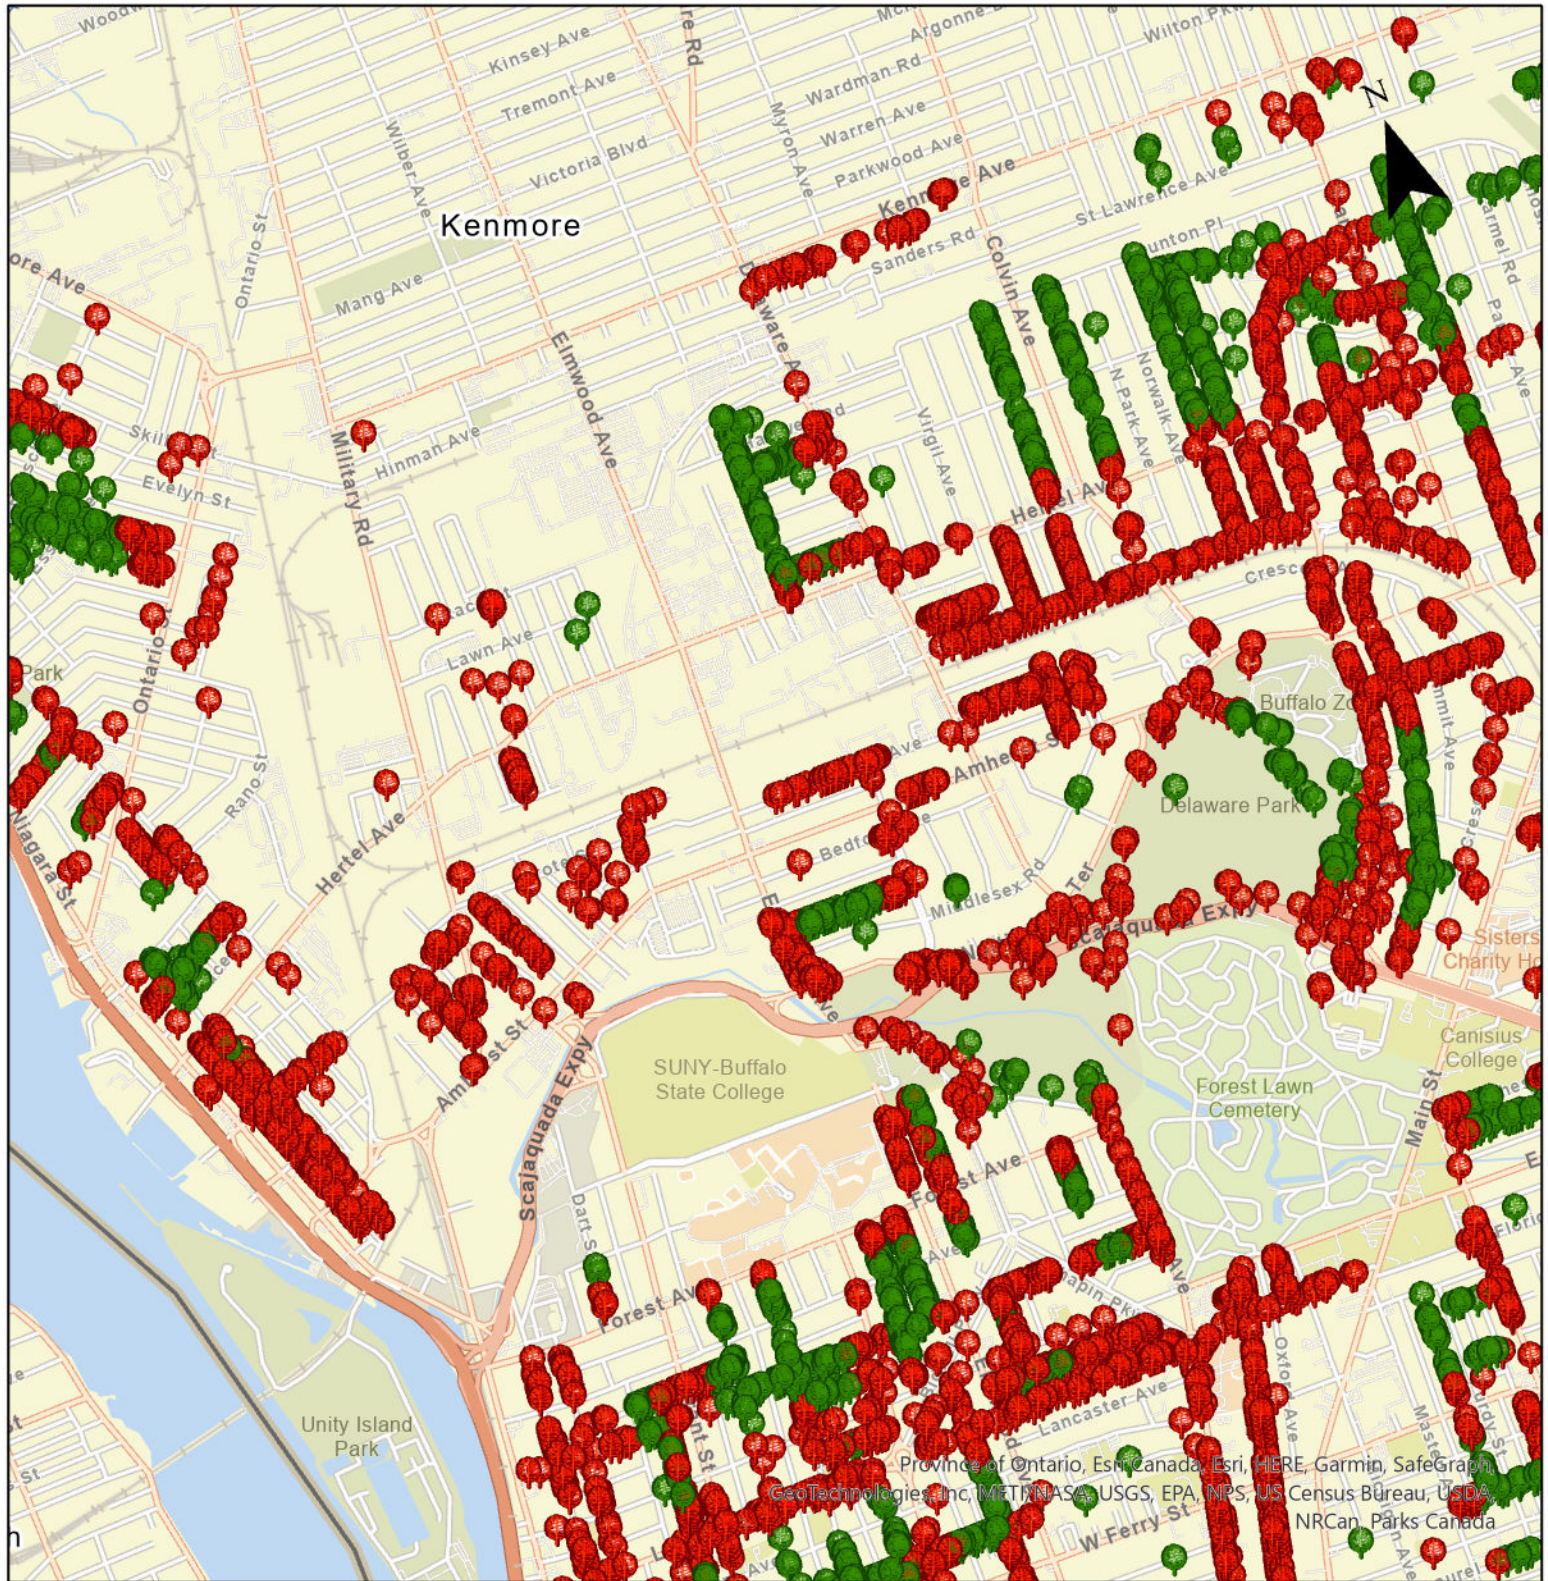

Linden Trees

-  Linden Trees in a good Location
-  Linden Trees located near Pollution Sources

A tree is considered located near a pollution source if it is within 100 m of medium sized roads and light industry, 200 m of large roads and highways, and 500 m of railroads and heavy industry.

North Buffalo Linden Trees

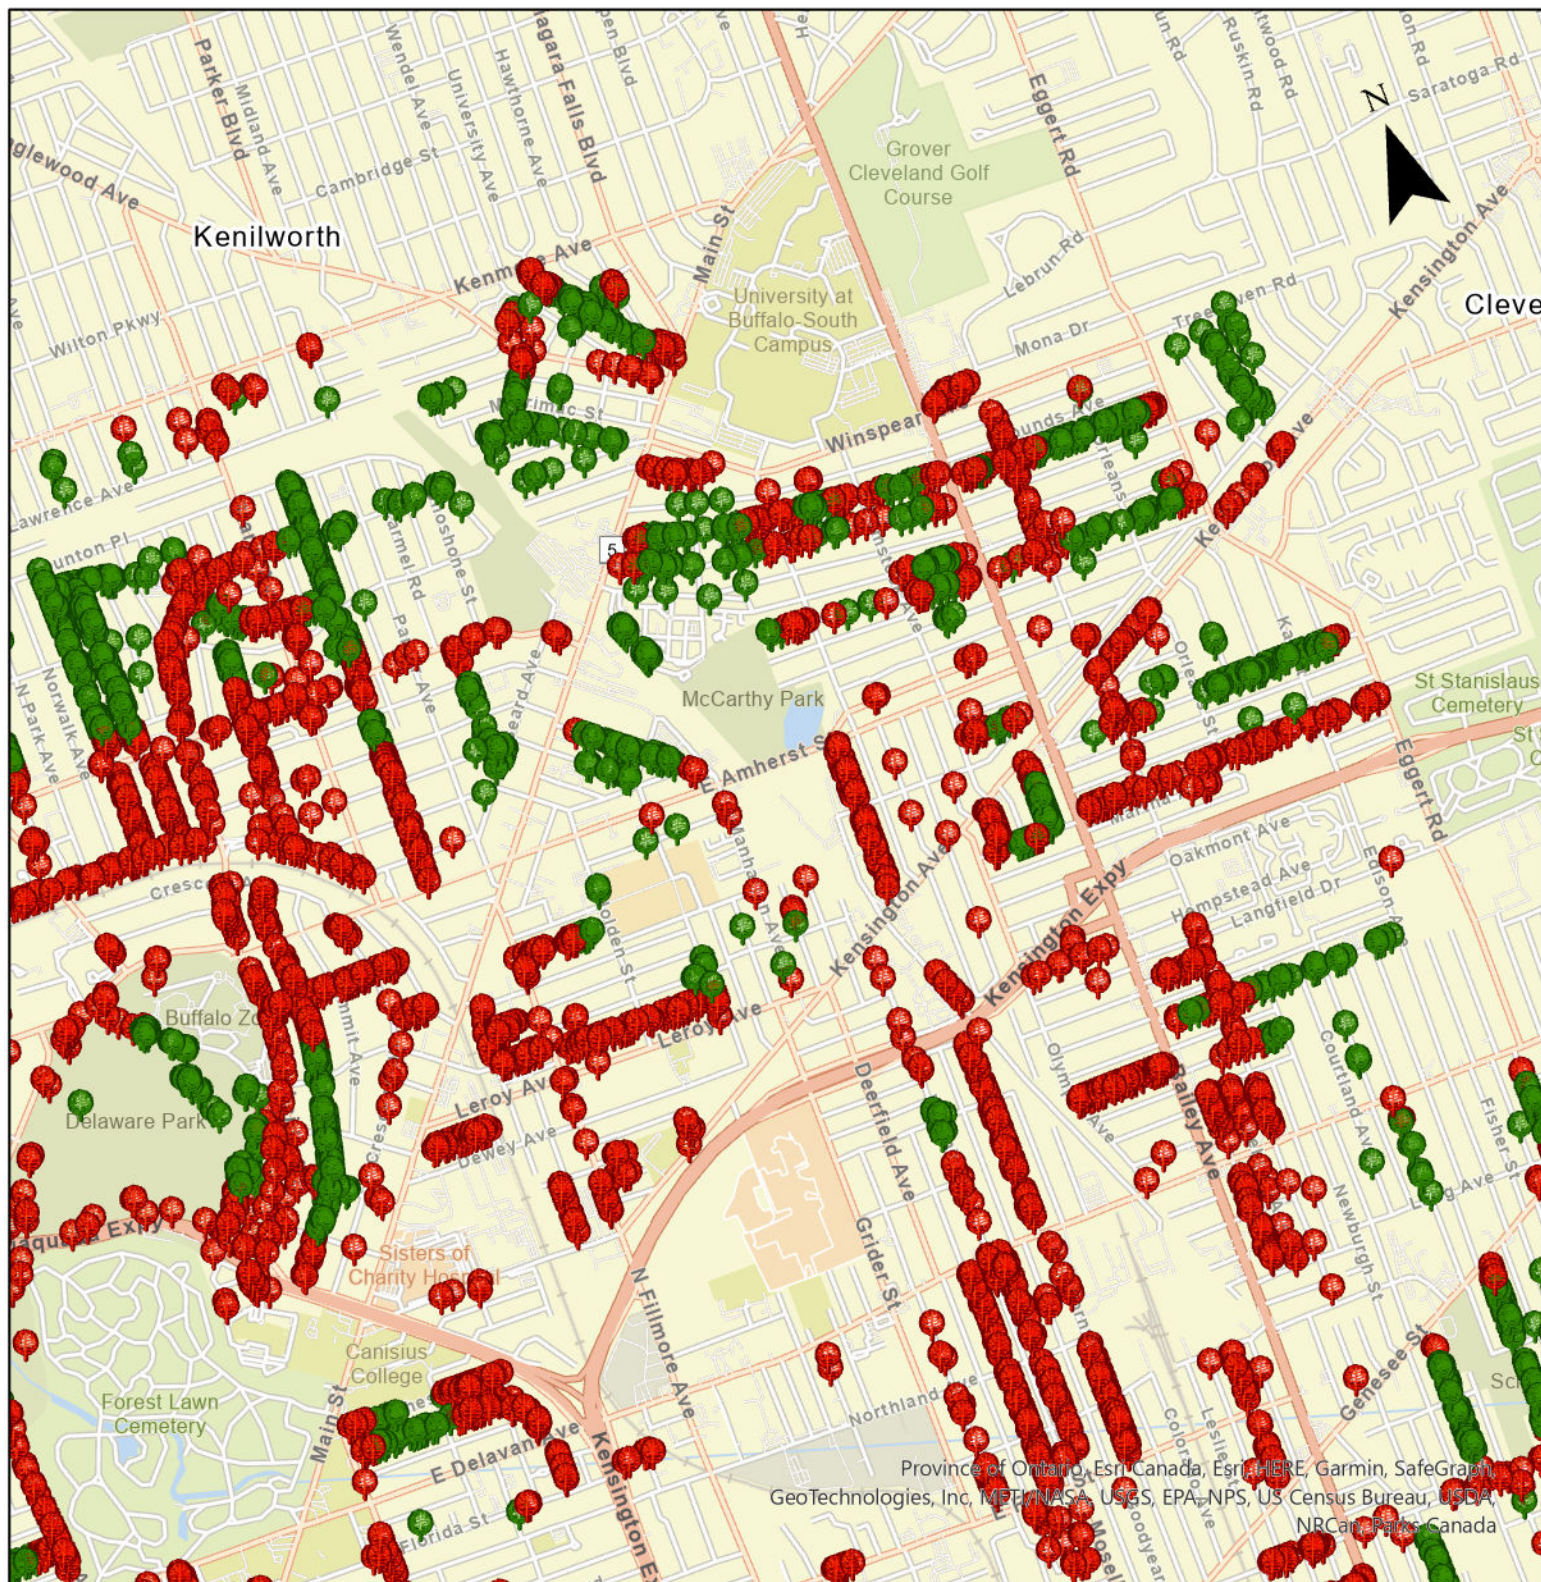

Linden Trees

-  Linden Trees in a good Location
-  Linden Trees located near Pollution Sources

A tree is considered located near a pollution source if it is within 100 m of medium sized roads and light industry, 200 m of large roads and highways, and 500 m of railroads and heavy industry.

University Heights/ Central Park Linden Trees

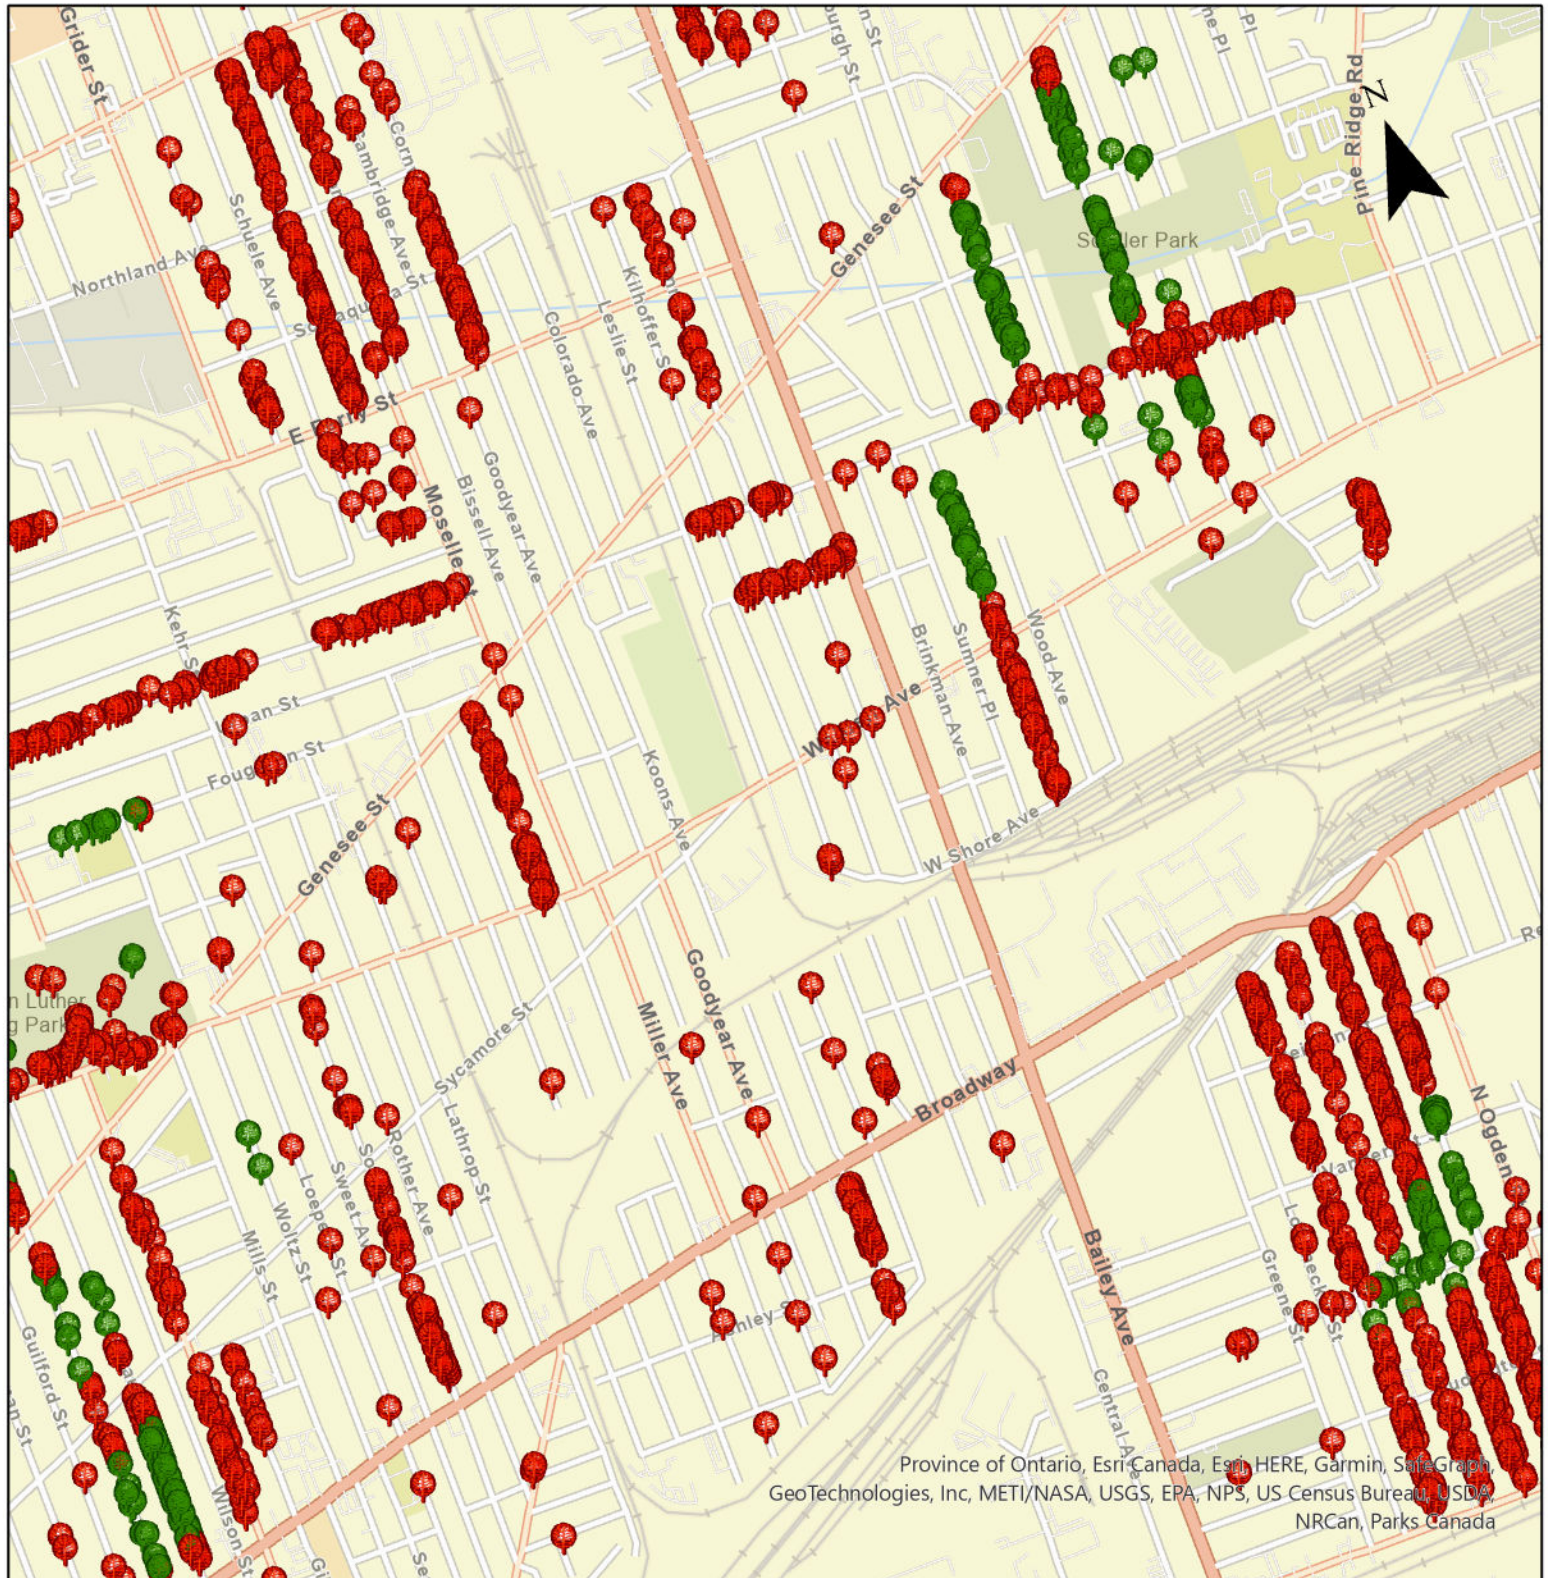

Linden Trees

-  Linden Trees in a good Location
-  Linden Trees located near Pollution Sources

A tree is considered located near a pollution source if it is within 100 m of medium sized roads and light industry, 200 m of large roads and highways, and 500 m of railroads and heavy industry.

East Buffalo Linden Trees

Linden Trees

-  Linden Trees in a good Location
-  Linden Trees located near Pollution Sources

A tree is considered located near a pollution source if it is within 100 m of medium sized roads and light industry, 200 m of large roads and highways, and 500 m of railroads and heavy industry.